AMY LEE CHEN
CLAREMONT GRADUATE UNIVERSITY

Teaching will be more than a job to this Taipei-born beauty. She intends to "change the world—one student at a time!" Her hobbies include reading, writing, karate and cooking.

TERESA BERTKE
SINCLAIR COMMUNITY COLLEGE

TLC is both a personal and professional philosophy for Teresa. "I love people and smile at everyone." She'll use that enthusiasm to become the "best, most caring nurse possible."

NICOLE CARTER
HOUSTON COMMUNITY COLLEGE

As a kid she was outgoing, tomboyish and a daredevil.

How about now? "I'm about the same, except a little toned down."

SASHA PERALTO
GROSSMONT COMMUNITY COLLEGE

"I have a full-time job, go to school and work out at the gym every day. It's a challenge, but it's going great." Sasha hopes to channel her natural talent for communication into a career as a TV news reporter.

HEATHER BURDEN
KENNESAW STATE UNIVERSITY

Here's an accounting major who's anything but calculating. In fact, she thinks she's too nice for her own good. "People tend to take advantage of me."

JENNY JAMES
TOWSON UNIVERSITY

Not much intimidates her, but Jenny admits posing for Playboy was a little scary. "At first I was hesitant, but then I realized everything happens for a reason, so if I never did it I'd regret it later in life."

LONG BEACH CITY COLLEGE

JACLYN KIRCHOFF
LONG BEACH CITY COLLEGE

This future X-ray technician is baffled by mens' love-you-love-you-not flip-flops.

"But then, I guess guys wonder why women go to the bathroom together."

PAC 10

PLAYBOY P.S.S. v

When you think of the PAC 10 (a.k.a. the Pacific 10 Conference), you think of perennial athletic powerhouses, academic excellence, golden sunshine, fresh air and spectacular scenic landscapes. But Playboy photographers didn't fan out in PAC 10 territory to snap pretty pictures of the mountains and the ocean. Their assignment was to scope out breathtaking scenery of another sort—the curvy coed kind. When word got out that Playboy was heading west looking for models enrolled in PAC 10 schools, we were overjoyed at the number of sexy students who took a break from their books to pose for us.

Ashley grew up on a South Dakota ranch;
Lily is studying to be a pediatrician;
Brandi wants a career in showbiz;
Erica hopes to edit a wildlife magazine.

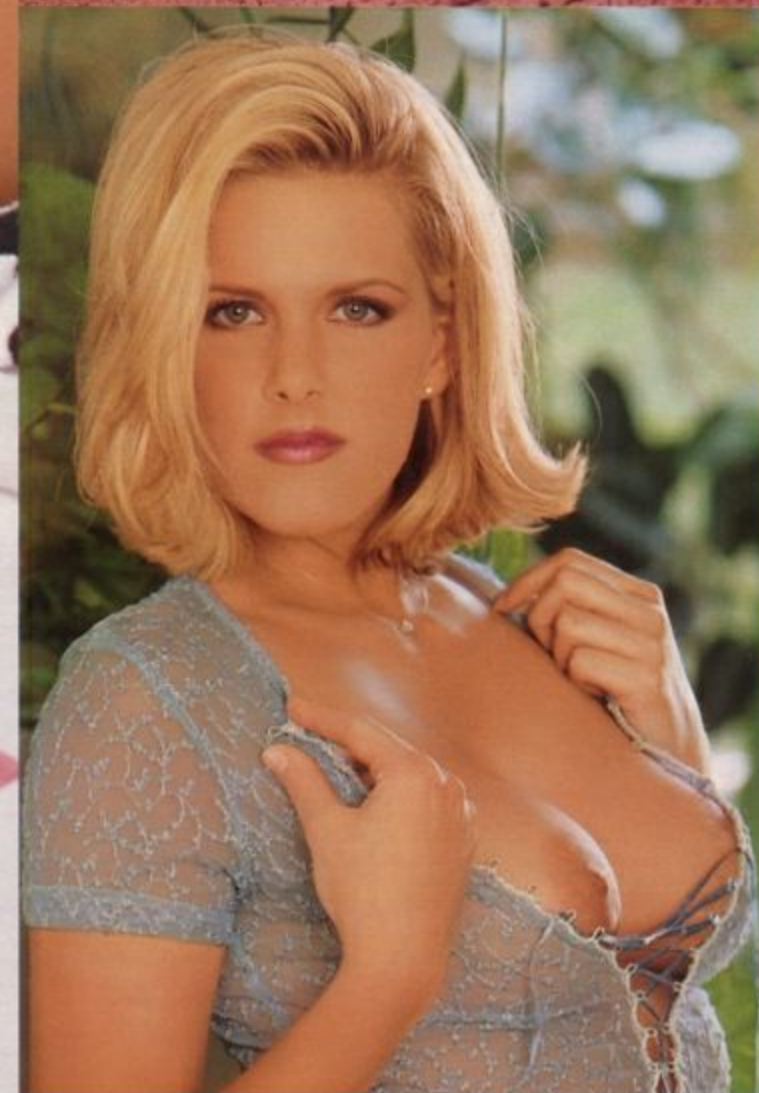

[illegible][illegible]

Of Peruvian descent, Michele is studying to become a nutritionist. She enjoys Rollerblading, jogging and "any other physical activity that makes me sweat."

This animal science major was born in the Czech Republic and helps pay her college bills by mixing it up as a bartender. Horseback riding and wakeboarding fill her play time.

One of four drop-dead beautiful sisters, Laurie is in premed studying to be a physician's assistant.

LAURA DELISA
ARIZONA STATE UNIVERSITY

Outside the classroom she can sometimes be found at a shooting range with a bright pink 9mm pistol—“so I can shoot and still look cute.” She’s also taking aim at a career in broadcast journalism.

LYNDSAY PRICE
UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

Where else would an exercise and movement science major work? At a health club, of course. Someday she'd like to own and operate her own.

USC USC USC USC USC USC USC USC USC USC USC USC USC USC USC USC

USC USC USC USC USC USC USC USC USC USC USC USC USC USC USC USC USC

Showbiz is in her blood. She's the niece of Jan (of the surfer group Jan and Dean) and plays a mean sax. Free-spirited and independent, she considers herself a "hippie at heart."

SONJA STONE
HUMBOLDT STATE UNIVERSITY

Sonja is justifiably proud of graduating from college and completing her first semester of graduate school. Other accomplishments? "Getting into Playboy and getting thin!"

DAWN MCFALL
SANTA MONICA COLLEGE

Although vivacious and loving, Dawn confesses she can also be hardheaded. "That can sometimes interfere with hearing others with an open mind."

JACQUELINE NORTHEIMER
SAN DIEGO CITY COLLEGE

A huge football fan, Jacqueline not only watches the sport, but she also enjoys playing it. "I like to get down and dirty." Off the field she spends her time studying to become a counselor to children with eating disorders.

TIFFANY TAYLOR
UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

Her criminology studies are on track (dean's list), as is her web site (www.tiffany-taylor.com). If Miss November '98 had to confess to a flaw, it's that she can sometimes be obsessive. "I can get way into things sometimes!"

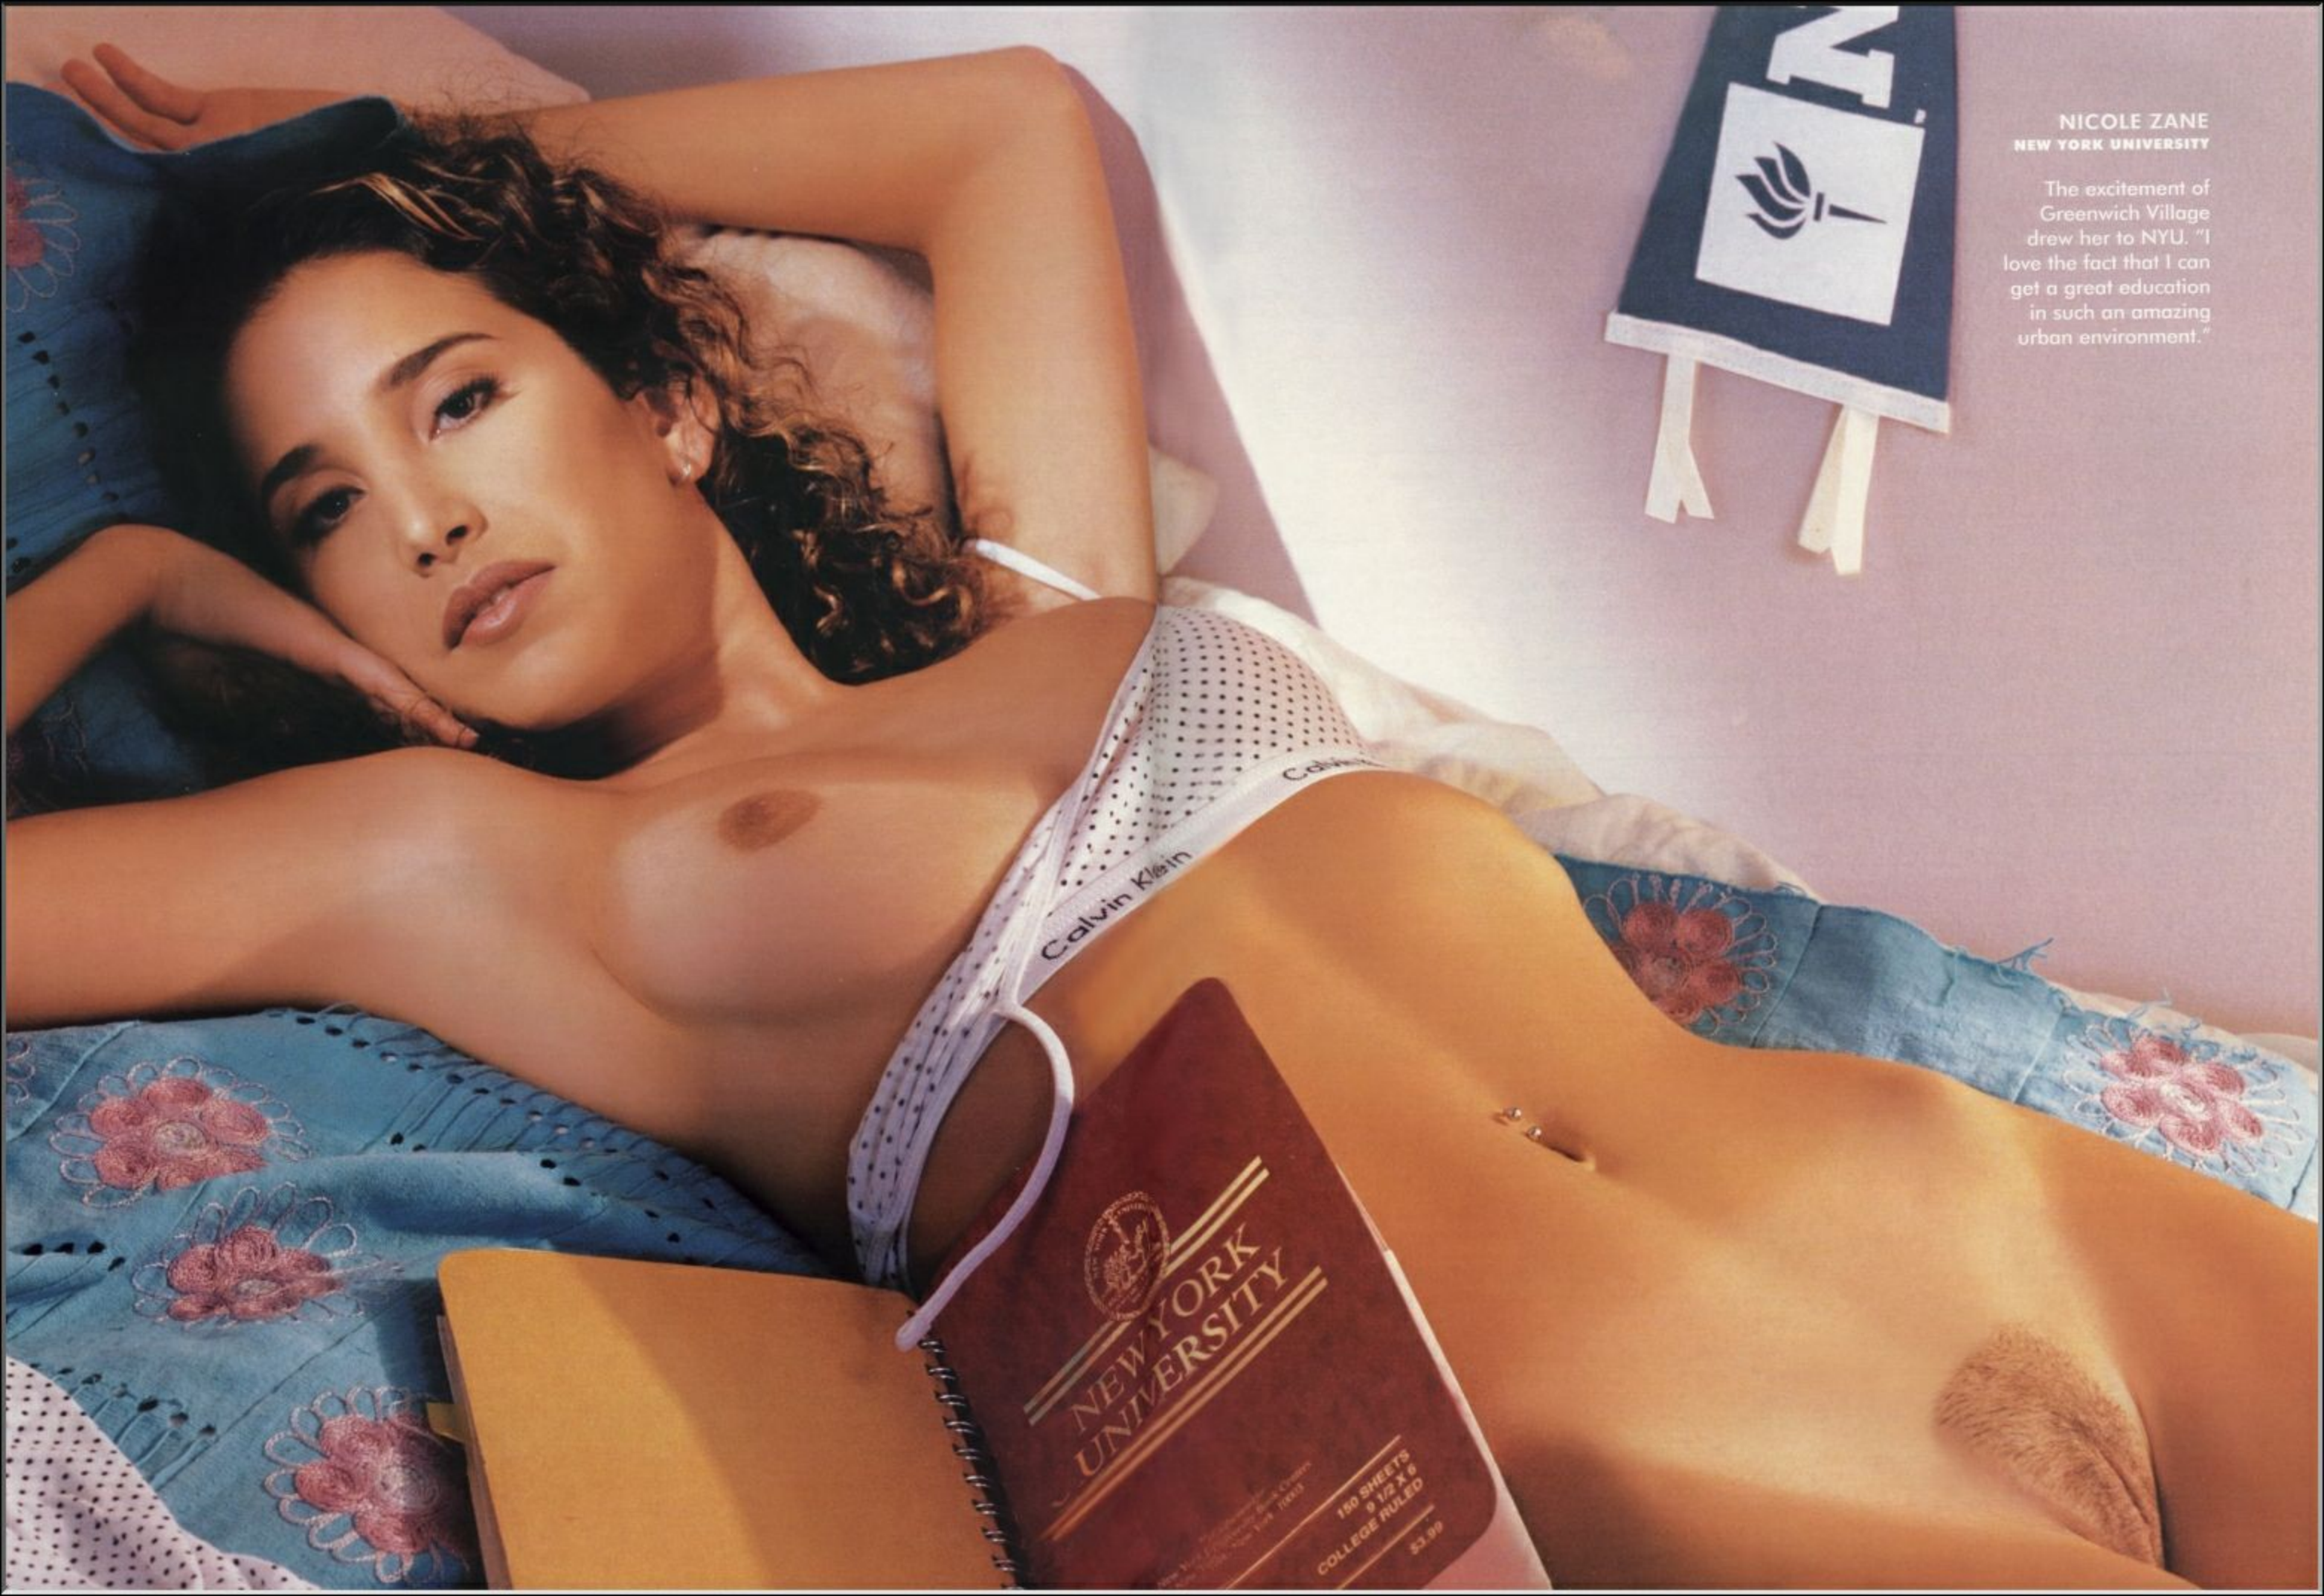

CD COLLEGE OF DUPAGE

SYLVIA KELLY
COLLEGE OF DUPAGE

Adding to the usual stresses and strains of college, Sylvia, who was born in Poland, had the additional handicap of learning English. But she's crossed that hurdle and is now doing great in school on her way to becoming a pediatrician.

NICOLE ZANE
NEW YORK UNIVERSITY

The excitement of Greenwich Village drew her to NYU. "I love the fact that I can get a great education in such an amazing urban environment."

TARA WADKINS
LOUISIANA STATE UNIVERSITY

If she could get away with it, Tara would love to run around naked. "I hate clothes. Nudity is the most natural thing in the world and posing for Playboy was a blast!"

AMANDA WILLEY

HOUSTON COMMUNITY COLLEGE SYSTEM

Business and accounting are her majors and probable careers, but she identifies with Julia Roberts and thinks they're a lot alike. "Julia's so outgoing and natural. An acting career is tempting, but I think I'll stick to adding numbers and checking bottom lines."

MISTY ATKINSON
MT. HOOD COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Raised by her father, Misty credits him with teaching her everything she knows about men. "I don't know if it's anything in particular he said, but I prefer shy guys. And I'm a sucker for a great smile."

TINA CROWDER
SAN JACINTO COLLEGE

Our cover girl is a biology major who made straight A's in school. She was consistently on the honor roll, won every skating and dance competition she ever entered, always cleaned up her room and studied all the time. No wonder the one thing she wishes she could do is "stop sweating the small stuff."

STACY LEIGH
NEW YORK UNIVERSITY

We expect great things from a woman who was voted most popular, most attractive, funniest and loudest in high school. Stacy intends to make her mark as a video, TV and film producer.

TANNA

She loves shy guys with great hands. Back rubs bliss her out, and she's totally turned on "by a man's nervousness around me. I find that really sexy."

TALINDA BENTLEY
CAL STATE POLYTECHNIC UNIVERSITY

She claims she doesn't date much because no one ever asks. "I'm not sure why. I make myself approachable, but men never seem to approach!" Maybe they will now.

 ALABAMA
NICOLE HOLLAND
UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA

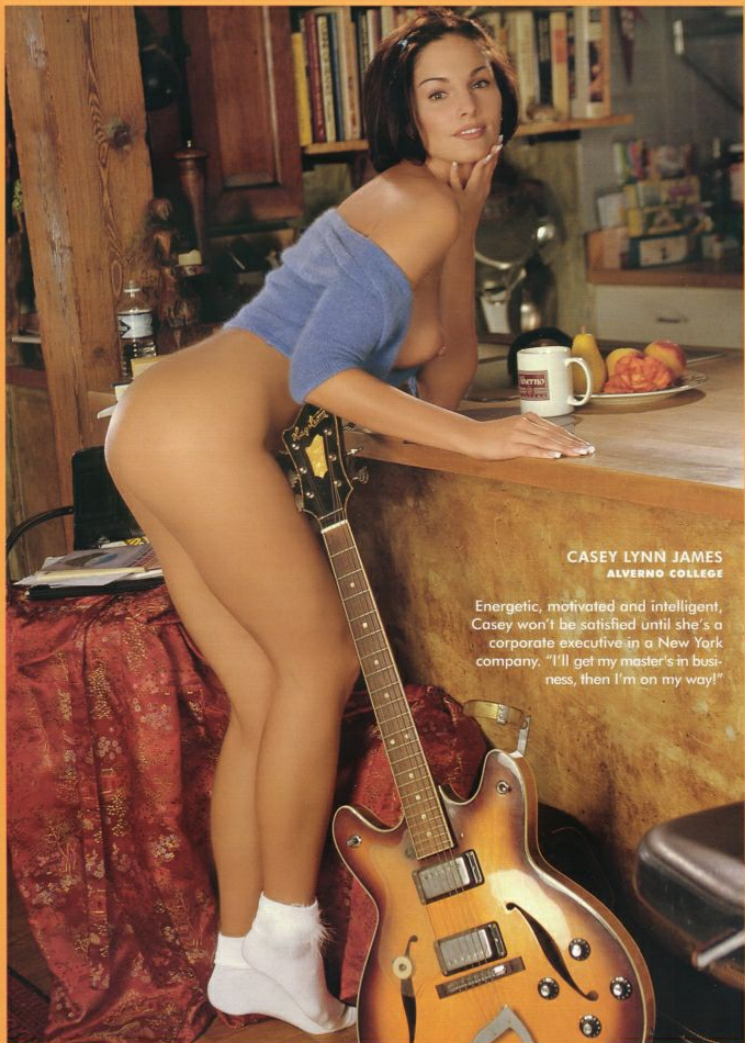

Nicole says she knows she's in love when she constantly checks her voice mail—"even if I step out of my place for two minutes"—or when she leaves long messages for her man on his voice mail and writes him "lots of meaningful poetry."

TAMMY VELEZ
MANATEE COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Pottery is her passion, but she's majoring in anthropology "just for fun." She's in no hurry to commit to a relationship, but she knows what she needs in one— "I want a man to be totally confident in himself. The way he talks and carries himself can be sexy in itself."

CASEY LYNN JAMES
ALVERNO COLLEGE

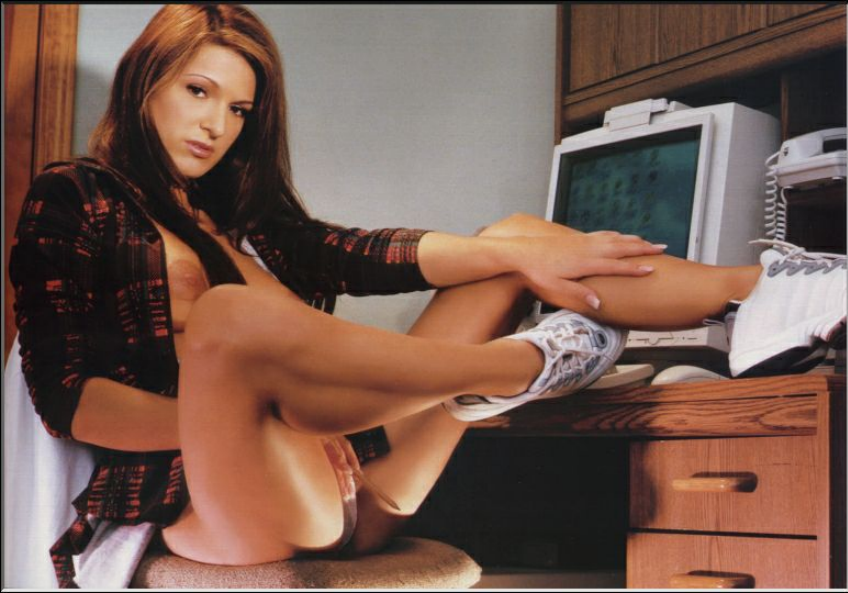

Energetic, motivated and intelligent, Casey won't be satisfied until she's a corporate executive in a New York company. "I'll get my master's in business, then I'm on my way!"

REBECCA JENKINS
NORTHERN VIRGINIA

"My mother always told me that life pushes you in a direction. I started out as a Hooters girl and ended up doing promotions for them. I kind of fell into what I love, so after I finish school I want to broaden my marketing career."

HEATHER GWENDOLYN
GEORGIA PERIMETER COLLEGE

Before she devotes herself to a career in nutrition and massage therapy, Heather will get in her share of snowboarding, in-line skating and traveling. "I'd really love to backpack across Europe for a couple of months before I start the rest of my life."

A native Texan and Dallas Cowboys fan, Michelle thinks of herself as free-spirited, adventuresome and up for anything. What's the sexiest thing she's ever done? "I plead the Fifth, but I'll give you a little hint: I like to dominate."
